

GENERAL LEGAL COUNCIL
ENTRANCE EXAMINATION
UNDERTAKING BY THE APPLICANT

The General Legal Council (GLC) has over the years established credible, rigorous and well-benchmarked systems and procedures for assessing answer booklets and re-checking of same for all candidates before examination results are released.

Thus, the decision of the General Legal Council in respect of the published results of the Entrance Examination shall be final.

No request for re-marking of scripts, re-tallying of scores or review or marks shall be accepted. Candidates cannot also request to see their marked answer scripts or the marking schemes used for marking the questions.

In view of the above, I undertake to accept without question, the decision of the General Legal Council in respect of the published results of the Entrance Examination as final.
